SUBJECT: Child and Youth Behavioral Military & Family Life Consultant (CYB- MFLAC)

Due to unique challenges faced by military families, the Department of Defense is providing professional licensed consulting staff to provide non-medical counseling services to Service Members and their families, children and staff of LA AFB CDC. With the expectation of mandatory state, federal and military reporting requirements (i.e. domestic violence, child abuse, and duty to warn situation. MFLAC support is private and confidential to encourage the widest level of participation.

The CYB-MFLAC's are available to provide non-medical support to faculty, staff, parents and children for issues amenable to short-term problem resolution such as school adjustment issues, deployment, and reunion adjustments, and parent-child communications. In his/ her roles as consultant, he/ she is available to:

- Observe, participate, and engage in activities with children and youth.
- Outreach to parents
- Facilitate deployment groups at the school.
- Conduct trainings for staff and parents.
- Recommend referrals to military, social services, and other local resources as needed.

Subject areas may include, but is not limited to the following:

- Communication
- Resolving Conflicts
- Managing Anger
- Bulling
- Self- Esteem/ Self- Confidence
- Behavioral management techniques
- Sibling/ Parental relationships
- Deployment and reintegration issues.

The consultant may also work with children in settings such as field trips and other school sponsored activities where he/ she is available to talk to the child(ren), facilitate group activities and be involved in such a way as to enhance the children's experience. The consultant is available to accommodate appointments and meeting/ activities after hours and on the weekend with advance notice.

Please note the following rule that our consultant must abide by. At no time will the consultant meet individually with a child without being in line of sight of a school employee or their parent/ guardian.

The school is very excited to offer the Military and Family Live Consultant program; confidential program which is offered at no cost. If you have any questions regarding this new support offering, feel free to call (818) 987-6344.
