

DID YOU KNOW?

The average military family moves 9 times over a 20-year career. With each move military children face many school-related challenges.

The School Liaison Program:

- Addresses issues with youth registration in the local school system
- Disseminates resources and information to families, commanders, schools and the community
- Validates transition concerns and connects families with resources
- Offers support for inbound/outbound school transfers
- Connects families with local school points of contact
- Advises command on education transition issues
- Trains and coordinates with local schools on the needs of military children
- Educates local communities and schools regarding the needs of military children
